

GLOBAL ACADEMY OF COACHING
LEAD. THRIVE. MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

Is Global Academy of Coaching
Certificate for you?

Is Global Academy of Coaching Certificate for you?

How is Global Academy of Coaching different from other coaching Certifications?

- Global Academy of Coaching Certification is accredited by International Coach Federation. The International Coach Federation (ICF) is the world's largest organization of professionally trained coaches, the leading global organization dedicated to advancing the coaching profession by setting high standards, providing independent certification and building a worldwide network of trained coaching professionals. It is vital for us when you put your effort, time and money into a certification, to be accredited by the best.
- We develop you in a holistic way. So at the same time, you discover yourself, your strengths, your needs and wants and at the same time we develop you as a Life Coach with a global reach. Our aim is to support you to become a leader and a coach at the same time.
- Global Academy of Coaching Certification has a blend of learning platforms. Classes have videos, followed by live questions and Coaching classes and a live week-end of coaching tools immersion in Paris. Also, part of the studies are the supervised coaching classes where GAC Professors give positive reinforcement and feedback to the student-coaches so that they refine their coaching.
- The Global Academy of Coaching Certification is one of the few certifications globally that has 40% of its professors at the level of MCC, an accreditation only 3% of coaches has.
- During your studies at the Global Academy of Coaching Certification you start coaching and being coached immediately. Therefore, you experience the benefits of coaching first hand and also start to practice coaching.
- In Global Academy of Coaching Certification, we focus on marketing as it is one of the most vital components towards your success as a coach.

I don't want to become a life coach professionally but want to develop myself and become a leader. Is the Global Academy of Coaching Certification for me?

Many of our graduates wanted to focus on their own development when they started the Global Academy of Coaching Certification. During their studies, they found out what their dreams are and how they could make them their reality. The Global Academy of Coaching Certification, is like a school for life and you will greatly benefit from it.

How long are the studies for?

You can graduate in 8 months. The studies are flexible according to your time commitment. You are responsible for logging into 12 live questions and Coaching classes as well as participating into the live week-end of coaching tools immersion. You need to attend 5 supervised sessions and deliver your thesis on your Coaching model of over 2.000 words as well as your learning's from the 12 coaching sessions you did (6 sessions as a coach and 6 as a coachee.) Keep in mind that the maximum time you can study at the Certification is 12 months.

Who is teaching?

Our professors are hand-picked and the best professors in the world on what they do. The Global Academy of Coaching Certification is one of the few certifications globally that has 40% of its professors at the level of MCC, an accreditation only 3% of coaches has. You may see the list of all the professors here: <https://www.globalacademyofcoaching.com>

My English is not proficient, will I be able to participate and graduate?

A handful of graduates were not proficient in English when they started their studies. Your English will improve a lot as you will be reading books in English and doing the classes in English. The language in personal development is simple and straight forward. Please contact us at info@globalacademyofcoaching.com so that we send you a sample of one class and also a sample of one of the books you will be studying so that you test it for yourself.

Will I be an ICF member once I graduate?

International Coach Federation is an independent federation. Once you graduate from the Global Academy of Coaching Certification you are accredited by the International Coach Federation for 64 hours of coach-specific training- ACSTH accreditation. This enables our graduates to apply to ICF for their credential as soon as they meet other requirements. For more information please visit <https://coachfederation.org/icf-credential/acc-paths/>

How will my own life benefit from my studies at Global Academy of Coaching Certification?

The majority of the Global Academy of Coaching Certification, have reported that their life has completely changed to the best because of their studies. This is one of the reasons the graduates rate with 9,5/10 the Certification. Taking 100% responsibility for our lives and goal setting towards living our dreams are the base of coaching, so by applying just these principles in your life you see a great change. For more please check graduate's testimonials.

When do I start coaching?

You start coaching others and being coached as soon as you finish week 4 in your curriculum, this can be as early as at the first month of your studies.

What is the coaching certification like?

Every first and third week of the month, you will be given a video class to watch together with exercises and coaching material to study. Every second and fourth week of the month you will be doing a live Questions and Coaching class with your GAC Professors where you will be able to practice what you have learned and sharpen your knowledge via live coaching.

Every month you have a life-changing book to study.

You have your Accountability Partner with whom you exchange your goals and wins on a weekly basis.

You have your coaching sessions: you will be assigned a coachee and you will also be coached by a fellow student.

You have access to the private Facebook Global Academy of Coaching Community where you can post your questions, your wins and goals and get support from your fellow students.

Within the 8 months of your studies, on the live week-end of coaching tools immersion in Paris you will meet with fellow coaches, learn tons of things about yourself and how you can transform your coaching business.

I cannot attend the live week-end of coaching tools immersion, can I graduate?

Attending the week-end of coaching tools immersion is mandatory and a part of your growth towards being a coach-leader. You can attend the next available week-end. In very rare medical occasions you can alternatively attend 8 live classes on top of your 12 live classes in order to graduate.

Can I contact some of your graduates to see what it's like to work with you?

You may read all the graduates testimonials here <https://www.globalacademyofcoaching.com/> and in case you still want to talk with someone, we will gladly connect you. We are very proud because our graduates rate their studies with 9,5/10 in their feedback.

Do you accept credit cards?

Yes, we do accept credit cards and also you may pay in 8 monthly installments via bank transfer. In case you want to pay the amount in full by the first 10 days you attend the Global Academy of Coaching Certification, you will have a 5% discount. Kindly note that in order to graduate it is mandatory that the full amount is paid.

What if I enroll and I realize it is not for me?

We apply a 100% guarantee at Global Academy of Coaching Certification as we want only committed students attending the Certificate. If you attend Class 1 and Class 2 together with the live questions and coaching sessions and you are not satisfied with the Certification, then you get back your money, no questions asked. After the 2 classes there are no refunds. Kindly note that you do not receive a refund if you do not attend the classes mentioned. Kindly note that in case you get a refund, you are not eligible to attend in the future the Certification.

OK, I know I want to become a coach- leader and enroll at the Global Academy of Coaching Certification. How do we get started?

Immediately after you pay the first installment you are given access to all the tools and password in the GAC Platform so that you get started!

I have a family and a busy life. Although I want to become a life coach and change my life badly, I don't have much time to spare. How much time do I need?

You will need to invest around 4-8 hours per week depending on your English level. We have had graduates with 3 children and very busy work schedules so if you are committed, you will most certainly find a way to make it work. Many graduates were studying at 11-2 am when their children were sleeping and reported that those were the best hours of their day.

OK, I'm ready to do this for myself, but I have a couple of additional questions. Can I call you?

You may talk to the Global Academy of Coaching Certification Ambassador to further discuss if you are a good fit for the Global Academy of Coaching Certification.